Cvijanović visits quake-damaged areas – SRNA

 December 29, 2020

During a visit Tuesday to the earthquake-damaged town of Kozarska Dubica, Republika Srpska President Željka Cvijanović said that the most important thing was that the earthquake caused no human casualties in Republika Srpska.

Cvijanović said that local communities could count on the support of republic institutions.

“Everything that will be necessary to resume normal life, to establish services, to help people who have suffered damage, will be done through joint activities of the republic and local authorities,” Cvijanović told the press.
